Chapter 1 by Lokman Salikoon

It started with a faint tapping on the wall.

Chapter 2 by HappyPills

And then scuttering steps under the floorboards.

Chapter 3 by Mia

Paintings flew away from the walls along with the nails.

Chapter 4 by Koko Hart

Like fireworks, windows were shattering. They exploded one after another and rained glass on the floor.

Chapter 5 by Matthew Battles

The scurrying grew louder; Tiny scampering footsteps under the floorboards. Inside the walls. Everywhere.

An overture of disjointed sounds coming in from every direction. Like moths to a light-bulb, these sounds were attracted to something, and it was becoming more intense. My nails scratched into the wooden floorboards, and O' my God I just realized!

Chapter 7 by Niltiac

The sounds all suddenly stopped at once. The silence was like a lion, about to pounce. The door behind me slowly creaked open. I sat on the floor, shuddering, afraid to look behind.

Chapter 8 by Adamanthea

The steps were soft on the ground. Someone was coming in. Paralyzed in fear, I slowly looked up at the opened door, and watched the figure slowly enter.
